

"The women's liberation movement is the most important player in the fight against the Islamic Republic. WLM is the antithesis of the Islamic regime. The Islamic regime promotes a misogynist ideology. Subordination and enslavement of women is its credo, the Islamic veil is its flag and gender apartheid is fundamental to its political system. WLM is not able to achieve any significant advancement without first doing away with this regime. The women's liberation movement in Iran embodies a revolutionary liberating force."

I R A N

A female revolution

A monumental challenge to Islam

A series of writings by Azar Majedi

